

Programme Outcomes

PO1	With the leadership and management qualities, the student is able to plan to determine and achieve the objectives considering the harmony between the educational institution and the environment.
PO2	The student is able to respond to the developments in terms of social, political, economical, cultural, and natural dynamics for the best interests of the educational institution.
PO3	The student is able to lead the educational institution in achieving the learning objective by considering teaching, learning, and evaluation processes.
PO4	The student is able to monitor the scientific developments and policy changes in the field of educational administration and implement them to the educational institution where he/she works in.
PO5	The student is able to identify the factors that are necessary for the determination of the objectives of the educational institution and realize these objectives with a scientific approach, and produce data-based solutions.
PO6	The student is able to put the ethical codes that exist in both professional and scientific sense before any application.
PO7	The student is able to think critically by using his/her theoretical and methodological knowledge for each situation they encounter in the educational institution and produce new solutions in this context.
PO8	The student is able to communicate effectively, take responsibility, work independently, operate in multicultural environments, think critically, solve problems, and have life-long learning skills.