

Program Outcomes

PO1	Defines scientific research and analysis methods which are used in social sciences.
PO2	Refers to the 1st- 4th grades primary education class schedules and basic principles.
PO3	Explains the theories of development and learning within the scope of primary education at 1st- 4th grades.
PO4	Clarifies teaching strategies, methods and techniques based upon the qualifications of graduation.
PO5	Explains the interaction among the disciplines related to the field.
PO6	Describes the teaching principles of the subject areas (Social Studies, Turkish, Science, Mathematics, etc.) of primary education at the 1st - 4th grades at a professional level.
PO7	Utilizes the combined information about class teaching and different areas.
PO8	Explains theoretical and practical knowledge of the field at a professional level.
PO9	Has a critical approach to the national and international applications concerning the primary education.
PO10	Plans and executes a scientific research.
PO11	Conducts teaching methods and techniques by taking qualifications of graduation into account.
PO12	Performs the study required for expertise in their field independently.
PO13	Has the quality of leadership in situations related to problem solving in their field or organizes teamwork.
PO14	Questions the scientific and social issues in a critical way, and welcomes new perspectives.
PO15	Conducts the studies in the field within the framework of lifelong learning.
PO16	Follows social and technological developments.
PO17	Conducts a scientific study in the field of primary education, and supporting with both qualitative and quantitative data submits the study to the experts and non-experts using written, oral and visual presentation techniques.
PO18	Utilizes information and communication technologies effectively.
PO19	Speaks one of the languages in the European language portfolio fluent enough to understand knowledge related to the field and maintain oral and written communication.
PO20	Respects the social, scientific, cultural and ethical values while conducting a research and a project related to the field or interpreting a study.