

1. Having confidence in himself and working with collaboration
2. Having the skills of problem solving
3. Having the critical approaches for the events
4. Applying and using of what they have learned in to the new situations
5. Having the different solutions to the problems.
6. Having correlations with the courses of field and general knowledge what they have learned
7. Knowing the ways to get to know the students well
8. Arranging the teaching atmosphere according to the acquisitions
9. Applying the different teaching method and techniques according to the teaching acquisitions
10. Applying the different classroom management models according the classroom atmosphere
11. Leading the students to solve the problems
12. Developing sensitivity against the problems of education
13. Having recommendations about the solution of educational problems
14. To be open to criticism and to take advantage of the criticism
15. Producing solutions to the public problems