

1. Being able to teach Turkish Language simultaneously and diachronically with its history, background and the national wealth,
2. Enabling their students to be skillful at usage of Turkish Language in written and verbal communication correctly,
3. Enabling their students to adopt Turkish Language as a learning, teaching and manner of life,
4. Being able to make them be innovative and creative individuals by using the gained knowledge from teaching techniques and material development courses in the programme,
5. Being able to make them be in a close relationship with social surroundings and society,
6. Being able to gain them the ability of teaching Turkish Language as a second language.