

Programme Outcomes

PO1	Conceptualize problems of clients within the framework of theories of counseling and to apply appropriate interventions and strategies.
PO2	To offer group counseling effectively
PO3	Willingness to develop a unique style of counseling.
PO4	To follow national and international publications in the field of counseling
PO5	To conduct scientific research in the field of counseling.
PO6	To be committed to provide counseling services in accordance to ethical principles, rules and laws
PO7	To communicate effectively, take responsibility, work independently, operate in multicultural environments, think critically, solve problems, and have life-long learning skills.