GOALS OF THE INSTITUTE

To encourage the opening of PhD programs in the departments completing their progress by the end of 2011.

To ensure electronic access to the content and summary of the master's and doctoral theses prepared in the Institute by the end of 2011.

To set up a computer lab to conduct computer aided courses by the end of 2011.

To increase the number of projects Supported by Scientific and Technological Research Unit to 28 by the end of 2011 and then increase it by 25% each year.

To encourage the opening of master's programs with thesis in the departments completing their progress by the end of 2012.

To encourage the publication of articles derived from the theses by the end of 2013 in national and international peer-reviewed journals.

To enable to archive all sent and received documents in an electronic form.

To increase the number of personnel by 65% by the end of 2013.

To encourage personnel to participate in training sessions within the sphere of their duties by the end of 2013 and to contribute to the improvement of personnel not only in quantity but also in quality.

To purchase five computers, five printers and 3 scanners for the personnel employed by the end of 2013.

To receive support of different institutions and organizations supporting scientific research apart from the university for minimum one thesis project per year by the end of 2013. Thus, minimum five projects shall be supported by different institutions and organizations by the end of 2013.

To purchase five computers, five printers and 3 scanners for the personnel employed by the end of 2013.