

Objectives of the Institute

OBJECTIVES OF THE INSTITUTE

To increase the number of graduate programmes.

To improve preparation process and quality of thesis.

To improve computer base of the institute.

To increase the number of graduate programmes.

To improve preparation process and quality of thesis.

To use IT effectively.

To improve human resources both in quality and quantity.

To improve computer technologies in the institute.

To increase the number of thesis projects supported by scientific and technological research unit and different institutions.