

Biology PhD Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the programme, the student:

1. understands and interprets the principles of biological science
2. relates their field with other fields and disciplines of science
3. foresees the problems in biological science
4. defends the proposed solutions
5. adopts the unique properties of biology
6. has bio-analytical thinking
7. gains problem-solving skills
8. is motivated to research and investigate
9. has scientific, systematic and logical thinking ability
10. understands the relation with other fields and disciplines of science