

Department of Coaching Education

Program Outcomes

1. Defines the concepts, theories, principles and facts in the field of Coaching Education and gains knowledge about the service delivery processes.
2. Follows new trends and approaches related to sports, has the competence to apply.
3. To follow the current developments in the field of sports science and to transfer his / her own studies to groups in and out of his / her field in written, oral and visual form systematically
4. Recognizes the fields, materials and technologies related to the field of Coaching Education and uses them efficiently.
5. Knows the research methods related to the Coaching Education Field, makes data collection, interpretation, application and evaluation of the results.
6. Can solve problems that require expertise in sports by using scientific research methods.
7. Understands interdisciplinary relationships and warnings for professional development.
8. Know a foreign language at a level to follow international events and publications in the field of Coaching Education.
9. Continuously improves her/his personal and professional skills related to Coaching Education.
10. To critically examine relations with sports organizations and other social groups and the norms that direct these relations, to take action to improve and change them when necessary, to develop strategies, policies and implementation plans in the field and evaluate the results within the framework of quality processes.
11. Using the theoretical and applied knowledge at the level of expertise, he / she can construct independently the problems he / she may encounter in his / her field, develop solution methods, solve them, evaluate the results, and apply them when necessary.
12. Improves health-related physical fitness elements.
13. To have knowledge about health problems, sports injuries and rehabilitation that may be encountered in the field of sports science, can practice basic first aid and life support.