

1. To have analytical thinking and analogical assessment skills
2. To be able to express them in a written way and orally ,overcoming his own scientific issues with feeling self-confidence in himself / herself in taking up references of his / her own history and culture and understanding the facts of century in which he / she lives,
3. To be able to use Turkish language, professional manner and history knowledge in the most effective way whenever necessary
4. To develop their abilities on solving and proving historical issues
5. To direct research and study
6. To develop scientific thinking
7. To teach thinking systematically and logically
8. To be sensitive to the country's problems, to follow agenda, to be able to associate the background of current issues with historical events