1. To have awareness of scientific ethics and responsibility
2. To gain ability to collect data, a source of information on the topics of history of science, to analyze, to interpret, to discuss and to suggest
3. To have the knowledge of foreign languages at the level of corresponding and following current research done in the field of history
4. To gain ability to work independently or as a team on a historical issue in terms of the rules of the History Methodology
5. To gain ability to make objective and consistent interpretation on the historical events taking place in different geographies
6. To have the ability to examine and evaluate the impact of factors of political, social, economic, ideological etc. in the development of historical events
7. To gain the ability to follow scientific publications and technological developments in the field of history and to access them
8. To have the ability to implement the knowledge gained in the field of history in interdisciplinary Studies
9. To recognize the importance of history of science at the national or international level, to have the ability to form conjectures on the background of today's events
10. To comprehend the necessity of acquiring new knowledge and skills for life
11. To have the ability and knowledge to establish a correlation between national history and world history
12. To develop the skills and abilities of critical thinking together with Turkish written and verbal communication skills
13. To gain the ability to understand the roles of individuals in society to find the dynamics mobilizing people, being aware of the requirements of social life