

Program Outcomes

1. To be able to follow the latest theoretical and practical developments of Eurasian societies in the fields of economics, international relations, language, literature, history, art history, sociology, geography and so on; to be able to make comment, analysis and assessment in these areas.
2. To know the history and the development of the Turkish world from beginning to present day,
3. To have the basic knowledge and background to be able to make research in the field of General Turkishness and environment, community-cultures.
4. To have enhanced sensitivity and experience in the fields of language, literature, history, art, art history, sociology, economics, business administration, international relations, anthropology, et al.
5. To know the phonetic and morphological equivalence between Turkish dialects and to be able to express himself.
6. To read, understand, to have the knowledge and experience about old and the written contemporary literary-scientific texts of Turkish dialects.
7. To know intermediate level at least one of the modern Turkish dialects and accents; one of the languages of Russian, Chinese, Persian, Arabic and Greek.
8. To have knowledge and ability at a level of identifying, analyzing and providing solutions for language, religion, culture, environment, ethnic and social problems of Turkish world and the other neighboring peoples.
9. To have knowledge and experience for making scientific research projects related to the field and to obtain skill for developing and building model and hypothesis for providing solutions to the problems.
10. To obtain scientific moral and ethical responsibility.
11. To obtain the ability of looking from different perspectives to the social events occurring in Eurasia.