

Learning Outcomes

1. To educate with the knowledge and background to evaluate and synthesize the information commonly in the fields of Turkish language, literature, culture, art, art history, history, sociology, international relations, economics, et al. and to provide a more objective and comprehensive information about the society and culture that are particularly specialized in.
2. To critically evaluate the emerging developments about the Eurasian region and carry out the advanced studies independently.
3. To educate with the capacity to identify regional problems and produce academic level of solutions.
4. To be able to generate strategic approaches and produce solutions by taking responsibility about current problems in the field of Eurasian Studies.
5. To orientate to the scientific field work and academic study about the Eurasian region.
6. To develop the scientific thought about the field.
7. To educate with knowledge and background to produce practical solutions for the current events and social developments.
8. To evaluate events and information systematically and logically to produce idea.
9. To follow the current problems of the country and the region to produce solutions.