

Learning Outcomes

1. To utilize the theoretical and practical knowledge in the fields of administration, politics, law, urbanization and environmental in the expertise level
2. Critical analyzing and evaluating problems emerging in the fields of administration, politics, law, urbanization and environmental and carry out advanced studies independently .
3. To develop strategic approaches to new problems that will face the public administration field and to set to produce solutions and take responsibility.
4. To have the ability to produce different solutions for the problems arising in the field of public administration.